

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The town of Canistota was established on October 22, 1883, when the Chicago and North Western Railroad chose the sight in the northwest corner of section 34; and,

Whereas, Six years later, in 1889, six South Dakota cities conducted an intensive fight to be the one chosen for the location of the Capital of South Dakota, and on October 1, 1889, Pierre won the battle; and,

Whereas, Canistota is the home of the Ortman Chiropractic Clinic and is known for hosting "Sport Day", a 3-day event consisting of games, parades and entertainment; and,

Whereas, Now, state government is going on the road to extend to the people of Canistota a unique program called "Capital for a Day;" and,

Whereas, "Capital for a Day" is designed to benefit the working relationship between state government and the citizens of South Dakota by providing a local forum for expression of concerns and exchange of ideas and information between the governor, cabinet officials and other state personnel and local elected officials, business people, and the general public:

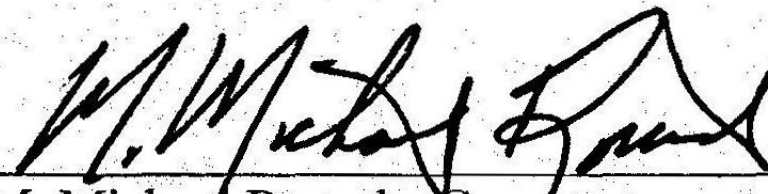

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 20, 2005, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
